

A People-to-People Campaign for Rwanda
Empowering women, transforming lives: Supporting genocide rape survivors who are now living with AIDS.

gift for life rwanda

Girls For Life Rwanda, a group of Glenfield Middle School students in Montclair, NJ, designed these shirts to raise money for Rwanda Gift for Life, a non-profit organization that provides support to women who were raped during the 1994 genocide, and are now living with AIDS. Rwanda Gift for Life provides support to women and their children for five years enabling them to access medical treatment including anti-retrovirals, and provides trauma counseling, food, decent housing, school supplies and uniforms for their children, and ensures economic empowerment through income generation projects and training.
